

2012 1L LCLD Scholars Program

At McGuireWoods, we define diversity as recognizing and valuing the differences in our workforce. To us, diversity encompasses age, sex, gender identity, race, ethnicity, national origin, disability, religion, sexual orientation, marital status and veteran status, as well as educational and professional backgrounds.

We are pleased to announce our participation in the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity (LCLD) Pipeline Committee's 1L Scholars Program. The LCLD Scholars Program gives diverse 1L students an opportunity to work side-by-side with McGuireWoods attorneys during a 4-week paid internship in the summer of 2012. Once selected as an LCLD Scholar, 1Ls are afforded other networking opportunities such as:

- Attendance at the 1L LCLD Scholars Retreat (June 2012)
- Participation in the LCLD Law School Mentor Program
- Dedicated LinkedIn Page for 1L LCLD Scholars

Applicants are considered based on their leadership experience, diversity related student organization involvement, and personal achievements.

Application packets should include:

- Completed Application
- Current Resume
- Undergraduate & Law School Transcripts (photocopy of official transcript is acceptable)
- Personal Statement (limit of 1,000 words) answering the following: There are five core values that distinguish McGuireWoods as a premier law firm: Excellence, Client Service, Integrity, Collegiality and Community. Please choose one of these core values and tell us how you have exemplified it in your professional and/or personal endeavors.

Materials can be sent via U.S. mail, e-mail or fax to:
